... Please turn over

Reason(s) for Excision:

One excision is required to remove a depiction of degrading sexual conduct. Following sexual intercourse a man positions himself over a woman's head and upper body. As he ejaculates he uses one hand to force her head back in order to direct the semen into her mouth. He continues to hold her head in this position as the camera provides views of the semen from different angles. The man remains in his dominating position while the woman fellates him until the end of the scene. Both his position and his action demonstrate the man's power over the woman and his apparent contempt for her. The depiction degrades the woman participant.
